Julianna (Julie) T. Hopper

Julie's practice is focused on representing public utilities and businesses involved in the energy sector before administrative agencies, primarily the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission. She also represents clients in the areas of civil and commercial litigation and has experience with appellate law.

Julie is experienced in assisting clients with matters before the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission, including compliance filings, rate cases, acquisitions, and condemnation proceedings.

As a civil and commercial litigator, she represents clients in a wide variety of legal issues, including contract disputes, collection matters, and insurance coverage issues.

Additionally, as an appellate lawyer, Julie has assisted clients in appellate administrative proceedings as well as through state and federal district courts, and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.
